

Kala Art Institute Printmaking Studio Internship

An internship at Kala Art Institute offers “hands on” experience working in a lively and stimulating environment in West Berkeley. Kala Art Institute's mission is to help artists sustain their creative efforts over time through its Artist-in-Residence and Fellowship Programs, and to increase appreciation of this work through exhibitions, public programming and educational efforts. Interns receive individual training in many aspects of running a printmaking studio; including maintenance of major equipment, safety procedures, and more. The two positions offers a wide variety of tasks on any given day, from cleaning, filling solvents, calibrating presses, assisting editioning projects, and more.

The skills acquired in this internship may be applicable to other teaching, studio, and master printer professions. Although this position is unpaid, interns completing 100 hours of work will receive free enrollment in a Kala class of his/her choice. Check out our current offerings online <http://kala.org/class/class.html>.
